

Kennecott Utah Copper has requested approval for the installation of a fifth grinding line and an ore sorting plant at the Copperton Concentrator near Copperton, Utah. The new equipment will consist of an ore sorting plant with baghouses, a small natural gas fired heater, cold solvent degreasers, a fuel oil tank, conveyor belt transfer points, a pebble crusher, two lime bins and a cooling tower. The draft permit is available for review on the Utah Division of Air Quality website.

Proposed emission changes from the project in tons per year are:

PM ₁₀	+12.77
PM _{2.5}	+3.61
NO _x	-0.37
SO _x	-0.002
VOC	+1.68
CO	-0.31